

IN RAILWAY CIRCLES.

All Local Trains Now Running on Schedule Time.

REASON FOR WHISKERS ORDER.

President Cable, of the Rock Island, on the Agreement—Personal and General Notes.

All the trains entering Salt Lake—save those of the Salt Lake & Fort Douglas and Salt Lake & Eastern—are now supposed to be running on schedule time. The trains on the Utah Central which were abandoned some days since, will be resumed this morning, and it is generally believed there will be no more delays on account of snow, the blockades and the backbone of winter having been broken at the same time.

Work on the east end of the Salt Lake & Eastern will be pushed ahead just as fast as the weather will permit. Had it not been for the unprecedented winter, Park City and Salt Lake would have been connected with bands of steel. As it is, the connection can be made in a few days when once work commences.

A Reason for the Whiskers Order.

In obedience to a general order recently issued by their superintendent, the brakemen and baggage masters of the Philadelphia & Reading railway now report for duty smooth shaven as priests. Many of the men had beautiful beards and fierce mustaches, with which they were wont to play and have with the heads of susceptible females along the line, while incidentally giving the cinder-laden wind a picnic. It is said that one brakeman caught a sufficient quantity of carbon in his whiskers to run his parlor stove in ordinary weather. When his wife wanted a scuffle of coal he simply took a coarse comb and raked it out. A baggage master had such a killing mustache that he succeeded in accumulating seven wives and a penitentiary term of ten years. These are only samples of the many advantages a whiskered brakeman or baggage master has over one bereft of his beard and mustache. It is, therefore, not to be wondered at that they protested when their superintendent commanded them to lay the knife at the roots of their Galvany and Burnside, their imperial and soup-strainers. Under a new rule a baggage master or brakeman is not only deprived of the power of mashing, but he is also compelled to give to the world that trustworthy index to the true character afforded by the features. A most villainous phiz may be made to appear gentle and honest by a proper disposition of whiskers. A face that, clean shaven, every one would pronounce the face of a coward, may have a fertile upper lip and grow a variegated mustache, and it is strange that those railroaders complained. Under the new order of things, when the brakeman opens his cavernous mouth to yell "Mixon-lighter!" he has no mustache to deceive, and not a girl on the train will cuddle up toward the window and mutely invite him to be sociable when he swaggers through the train. His villainous mug will give him dead away. And so with the baggage master. The razor having torn away the masks, the lineaments of his countenance will tell of the thousands of trunks he has cruelly mutilated or murdered.

Of course the good brakeman and conscientious baggage master won't complain, but they are so few that nobody will know the difference. The superintendent of the Reading has done the public a great service and his example may be imitated.—Minneapolis Tribune.

Personal and General.

President Cable, of the Rock Island, says: "I shall oppose any modification of the present agreement looking to the recognition of alliances like that of the Northwest and Union Pacific. The Rock Island favors the association and will stand by it if all others withdraw."

The following notice is posted at the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe stations: Commencing February 1, 1890, all new line terms issued will be numbered, and receipts taken for them, the same as is now done for switch and coach keys. Lanterns lost or rendered unfit for service will be charged for at the rate of $1 each, unless a satisfactory explanation is given, showing that loss or damage resulted from causes beyond the employee's control. This rule will apply to all employees whose duties require them to be provided with lanterns.

Mr. Liberty Biscow, a well known Boston railway and express man, died in that city January 30, aged 65 years. He took the contract for carrying the United States mail when the Canadian line was first established, and in 1844 made the quickest mail time ever known with horses between Long Island and New York. When the Rutland & Burlington railroad started the road between Bellows Falls and Rutland, Mr. Biscow was appointed its first superintendent, and later, in 1854, he was appointed superintendent of the Fitchburg railroad, resigning from that position in 1857. Later he started the express business, which since has become known as the United States & Canada express. While in this business he also started in Boston the first line of coaches between depots and hotels.

Perhaps the readers of THE HERALD would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this Remedy is taken as directed, as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, if not effectually cure the cold in two days' time, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold as quickly or leave the system in as sound a condition. Fifty cents and one dollar bottles for sale by Z. C. M. I. drug department.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and a large bottle helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong and healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds.
